

Riverfield Academy
Syllabus

Environmental Science
2017-2018

Teacher: Mrs. Marie D. Miller, BS, MEd mamiller@riverfieldacademy.net

Course Content Environmental Science is a study of the relationship of humans and the world in which they live. It is an applied science in that the principles of pure chemistry and biology are applied to achieve practical goals.

- Classroom rules:
1. Be Honest
 2. Be present, be prompt, and be prepared.
 3. Obey all school rules
 4. Respect others (teachers, students, staff, and subs)
 5. NO CELL PHONES!!!
 6. NO FOOD, DRINKS, OR GUM IN THE CLASSROOM.

Grading:	Chapter quizzes	dates TBA	500
		100 points each
	Case studies (One page report with references on a specific topic)		450
		Topics will be assigned on Thursday
		One per week due on Wednesday
	One page typed (two if hand written) double space
	50 points each	5 pts off each day late; 0 if 5 days late
	Assignments – two per week.	10 points each	180
	9 Weeks Test		200

Supplies: A 3 ring binder with paper or a notebook (standard size) with pockets for handouts, pen, pencil.